

Deanna (Burke) Emborski – Class of 1989

DeAnna is a speaker, domestic violence survivor and founder of Victory Over Violence USA, a campaign committed to ending domestic violence. VOV's motto is "Remember the Victims, Support the Survivors and Educate Our Communities." DeAnna is currently Mrs. Global Nations 2012, was Mrs. Washington 2009, Mrs. Florida 2007, and a 2010 Gold Presidential Community Service Award winner. She currently works with The Virginia Destroyers UFL Team. She has served as Advertising Sales Director for Tribune, the publisher of four newspapers in Washington state, and as GM of a NASCAR Magazine. She is a proud military wife and the mother of six. DeAnna serves her community through many local and international affiliations.